

BOY FIEND SETS WOMAN ABLAZE ON PARK BENCH

Kindles Fire Under Victim,
Who Is Mortally Injured.

RESCUERS TOO LATE.

Smother Flames in Clothing
After Miss McCormick
Falls Unconscious.

Miss Catherine McCormick, thirty-eight years old, was sitting on a bench in Rose Hill Park, near Fordham Station, the Bronx, this afternoon, waiting for a train to take her back to her home, at No. 407 Hill Street, Mount Vernon. Several persons saw a half-grown boy slip up behind her with a big bundle of newspapers in his two hands. The boy pulled the papers in a heap underneath and behind the woman, and before anybody divined his purpose he had touched a match to the heap and was running away.

As the flame sprang up Miss McCormick's light summer gown ignited. With a scream, she leaped to her feet and stumbled wildly across the lawn, tearing at her burning garments with her hands. Before she had gone twenty feet she fell, with her hair ablaze and her clothing dropping from her in charred wisps.

Probably Mortally Burned.

In a restaurant across the way, on Pelham avenue, at One Hundred and Eighty-ninth street and Webster avenue. At a table near the front was the principal, James Harvey, with three of the men under him—Prof. George Vogel, H. Hine and W. Aloright.

At the first cry from the tortured woman these four men jumped up and ran to the rescue. They coaxed Miss McCormick, in their coats and rolled her on the grass until they extinguished the fire.

The woman was in a pitiable condition. She was terribly blistered from head to foot. Her hair was scorched entirely away. She was just able to whisper her name and address, and when she fainted, Dr. Stewart, the ambulance surgeon, who rushed her to Fordham Hospital, said she would probably die.

Richard Thatcher, living at No. 345 East One Hundred and Ninety-fourth street, pointed out to Policeman Donovan, of Bronx Park station, a skunking lad, who, he said, was the same that had burned Miss McCormick. The suspect, who seemed to be badly frightened, did not attempt to get away when Donovan bore down upon him. For fear of a demonstration by the big crowd that had gathered, Donovan hurried his prisoner to the Morrisania Police Court.

Boy of Fifteen Arrested.

There, through an interpreter, the boy said he was Francisco T. Drasino, of No. 234 Arthur avenue. He gave his age as fifteen. He denied all knowledge of the outrage upon the Mt. Vernon woman, but after young Thatcher had positively identified him Magistrate Harris turned him over to the Children's Society to be held until Miss McCormick's condition recovered sufficiently to appear against him.

Drasino had been in this country only two years, he said. He spoke little English. He seemed rather stupid but was not vicious looking.

BOSTON WOMEN WIN TEAM MATCH

Philadelphia Golfers Are Outclassed at Play for Griscom Cup at Oakley.

WATERTOWN, Mass., June 11.—Boston women golfers this afternoon beat the Philadelphia team 11 points to 4 for the Mrs. Clement A. Griscom Cup, an annual contest, in which New York dropped out this year for the first time since the affair was started, nearly a decade ago.

The match, as usual, was at eighteen holes, fifteen players on a side. The play was at the Oakley Country Club, Watertown, where the third annual Eastern championship closed last night. Each victory counted a point, as follows:

BOSTON—Miss Margaret Curtis, 1; Miss Mary Adams, 1; Miss Fannie Osgood, 1; Miss Harriet Curtis, 0; Miss Mary Phelps, 1; Miss Katherine Harvey, 1; Mrs. A. P. Chase, 0; Miss Elizabeth Porter, 0; Mrs. F. W. Bachelder, 1; Mrs. G. W. Roope, 1; Miss Eleanor Allen, 1; Mrs. A. McGregor, 1; Miss Marie Phelps, 1; Miss Helen Johnson, 1; Mrs. G. H. Converse, 1. Total, 11.

PHILADELPHIA—Mrs. Caleb Fox, 0; Miss Frances Griscom, 0; Mrs. Ronald Barlow, 1; Mrs. Clarence Vanderbeck, 1; Mrs. O. McCammon, 0; Miss Florence McNeely, 0; Mrs. E. A. Filler, 1; Miss E. N. Hood, 1; Miss A. Davis, 0; Miss M. L. Frishmuth, 0; Miss T. Galley, 0; Mrs. C. M. Work, 0; Mrs. William West, 0; Mrs. Arthur Garrett, 0; Miss P. Penock, 0. Total, 4.

The principal surprise was the defeat of Miss Osgood, of Boston, who yesterday won the Eastern Championship, by Mrs. Barlow, of Philadelphia. It was thought that Mrs. Filler, of Philadelphia, would defeat Mrs. Chase, of Boston. Close judges, however, rather expected to see Miss Harriet Curtis, national champion, lose, for her opponent was Mrs. Clarence Vanderbeck, of Philadelphia, the "find" of the competition.

FIVE KILLED IN WRECK.
TOURNAL, Belgium, June 11.—There was a railroad wreck near here to-day which resulted in the killing of five persons and the wounding of several others. A passenger train from Mons ran off the track and several cars were demolished. The wreckage immediately caught fire and was entirely consumed. It was with much difficulty that the wounded were removed from the wreckage before the flames reached them.

JURORS' FEES PILING UP.

Increase in This City of Nearly $200,000 in Two Years.

The increase in courts and in the volume of litigation in New York city has caused an increase of nearly $200,000 a year in the amount which the city has to pay out for jurors' fees. City Chamberlain James J. Martin, in his annual report, published yesterday, estimates that these fees this year will amount to $200,000.

Mr. Martin says: "In 1906, the total number of jurors serving in the several courts in New York, Kings, Queens and Richmond Counties, including grand jurors, was 23,314, and the amount paid them was $21,254. In 1907, the number of jurors was 23,840, and they were paid $25,168.24, an increase of 7,526 in the number of jurors and $3,914.24."

INSULTED THE BUTCHER.

A young Harlem housewife got a new maid yesterday whom she told to go marketing, and among other things to get a porterhouse steak. The maid was gone a long time, but she returned finally with all the purchases she had been directed to make except the steak.

"Why didn't you buy the steak I told you to bring home?" asked the mistress.

"The butcher said he didn't have any boardin' house steak, and he was real mad, too."

Do You Do Your Own Work?

Yes? Then you should use P. & G. Naphtha Soap.

It is just what you need.

It is a time-saver, a money saver and a labor-saver.

It does better work, with cold or lukewarm water, than ordinary laundry soap and hot water.

Buy a cake. Try it.

You will find that it will make the clothes cleaner, sweeter, brighter, whiter than they ever were before—in half the time and with half the effort it now takes.

Use it in the kitchen—for the dishes, for the floors, for painted walls, for pots and pans. It is just as valuable for such purposes as for washing clothes.

It is a hard soap and a cake of it will do a remarkable amount of work. It is a white soap and can be used for any number of purposes for which yellow laundry soaps are unsafe and unsatisfactory.

5 Cents a Cake—at Your Grocer's.
